Description: Finally, after all those years, Pere Ubu's noisy guitarist, Tom Herman has a solo album. Of course, it's an eclectic blend of songs from the opening "300 Years," a tribute to the working class folk tradition, to "Jesus," a Blind Lemon Jefferson spiritual. Along the way, there's a guitar collage (Red Haired Girl), an amped-up dance number (Your Street) and plenty of Rock and Roll.

Band: Tom Herman played all instruments except for drums on When I'm Gone and Hey which were played by Steve Mehlman and on I Do Now which were played by Nate. As well, Linda Herman sang on Your Street and Lennie Bove sang and played guitar on Veil Of Separation.

Credits: All songs written by Tom Herman except Veil Of Separation which was written by Herman-Bove, It's Not The Way It Seems which was written by Tom and Linda Herman, and Jesus which was written by Blind Lemon Jefferson.
